

8th Annual!

St. Petersburg Audubon Society The Dr. Harold Albers Teacher Ecology Camp

2-Day Sessions

4, 2-day Workshops for Tampa Bay Area Teachers
June 14 - 24, 2016
Weekdays 8:30am to 3:30pm daily

Full-Scholarships Awarded! For an Application or More Information, Email Wanda Dean: education@stpeteaudubon.org

Register Spring 2016!

Enroll in 1, 2, 3, or all 4

Week 1 Workshop A Workshop B

Week 2 Workshop C
Workshop D

Workshop A: "Estuary Ecology"

June 14 - 15, Tu & W

- Florida Ecosystems & Tampa Bay Estuary
- Estuary Food Web Energy & Hydrologic Cycle
- Field: Canoeing Tampa Bay; Seining & Plankton

Workshop C: Florida Birds

June 21 - 22, Tu & W

- Avian Identification, Schoolyards and Conservation
- Live Bird of Prey Program & Avian Adaptations
- Field Trip: Importance of Urban Habitats

Workshop B: "Florida Ecology"

June 16 - 17, Th & F

- Florida Wildlife Biodiversity and Adaptations
- Land Management, Conservation, Wildlife Landscaping
- Field Trip: Florida Wildlife ID & Habitats

Wkshp D: Climate Change & Sea Level Rise

June 23 - 24, Th & F

- Understanding Climate Change; Impacts on Wildlife
- Global, National and Florida - Future w/Sea Level Rise
- Field Trip: A New Perspective of Fort DeSoto Park

Wonderful Resources for Your Classroom • 12 Component Points for each 2-day Workshop

Workshop A: Classes and Field Trips at Weedon Island Preserve, St. Petersburg

Workshop B: Classes at Weedon Island Preserve; Field Trip at Lettuce Lake Park, Tampa (transportation included)

Workshop C: Classes & Field Trips - Brooker Creek Preserve, Tarpon Springs & Boyd Hill Nature Preserve, St. Pete.

Workshop D: Classes at Weedon Island Preserve; Field Trip at Fort De Soto Park, Tierra Verde (transportation incl.)

